“ When I think about my Mentors in my life, Bill Rollins is at the top in all areas. He taught me so much (and who knows who was touched in some way by Bill's kindness and guidance) by his doing , he showed up at Hospitals so early I wasn't even there. Just to pray and sit and pray some more. He left a mark on my heart like few others. He set the bar high for the rest of us men to try and reach. I could never get too much of Bill Rollins when he was in talking, Facilitating or teaching. When Bill spoke people listened. God used him like no other man I knew. I love you Bill. Now you can ask and get some answers to some questions. Give Bobbie a hug.

“ Bill was such a constant in our family, a source of strength and faith to us all. He conducted the funeral services for Mother and Daddy, which meant a great deal to the family. I will always remember Bill's big smile, cheerful greeting, and loving kinship. A man of great faith, Bill is now at home with our God.

“ I'll never forget the day when Bill came to our house thinking he was at Lori's. Ernie was working outside on his truck and when Bill saw him he asked Ernie if he was doing some work for Robbie. Ernie told him he didn't think so. Bill said ok and came on into the house. Well he saw me in the kitchen and asked what I was doing and I told him I was feeding the dogs. He said ok. He looked around a little puzzled and then asked if Lori was there and I said no. He said oh ok. He said well when she gets home tell her I came by and have some bills I want her to pay, so I said sure. As soon as he walked out I called Lori and told her to hurry and go outside because her Dad thought he was at her house. Well Lori intercepted him and we got a chuckle out of it. Our houses looked so similar and he only missed hers by one driveway.

“ Bill (Angus) Rollins is one of the few people in this world that I have known since I was old enough to know people. I have many fond memories. I will never forget his tribute to my uncle Harry Lee Davis at his funeral. What a great story teller he is !

“ Billy married our son, Jeremy. He also did the service for my father, Bob Smith. He taught myself and my husband an awful lot about our Lord. He visited countless times my family and Mitch's family. He was a good friend and a wonderful mentor. We loved him and his wonderful sense of humor. We were blessed to have him in our lives in so many ways. We know he is in a better place now. Mitch and Lee Ann West “ Words cannot express how much Bill Rollins meant to our family. When we were a young couple starting out, his visit pulled us into the church. He and Bobbi cared for our children and family in a special way for many years. Numerous times he was there for us for many different occasions. He had a special way of just being there to pray, support, and lead by example. Now, he is finally back with Bobbi again! The world has lost a true warrior for Jesus, but heaven is rejoicing and God is smiling and saying "Well done, my good and faithful servant." I will always treasure the memory of Bill Rollins with fondness, respect, and love.

Thank you, Bill for being there!
