“ The world has lost a uniquely kind, loving, giving and beautiful human being. I cannot imagine how deeply her family and closest friends feel this terrible loss, and my prayers are for them. I was blessed to have known Diane, as my next door neighbor at Driftwood Towers. She was always positive, caring, helpful, and fun. Her heart was full and her faith was strong and she lived her life in service to others and to God. My prayers are for her lovely family, whom she adored, every one of them. She will be sorely missed by so many people.

“ As past President of the Board of Driftwood Towers in Gulf Shores I came to know James and Diane Gatewood who served the Board. Unlike many owners they shared their time and talents to keep the property in good shape and make difficult decisions on management of the facility. When James passed away I told my wife we have lost one of the true Southern gentlemen of our times. James had a peace about him and was always willing to help others. Now that Diane has joined James and they are together again, I am confident they are happy. Diane needs no training to be in heaven as she was an angel on earth. She was kind, compassionate, always hopeful and a true joy to know. Both James and Diane will truly be missed as a fine Christian couple serving as a model for the rest of us. My condolences. “ Diane was a role-model and inspiration to us kids back at White Oak Hills Baptist Church where she accompanied the choirs and services on the organ and piano. As I remember, she played effortlessly and lovingly. Although I went to Murphy too, she was a senior when I started and then she graduated with my brother, Tommy Walters. so my memories are from church.

Diane was pretty inside and out. She was gracious and compassionate. Sending my deepest sympathies to her family, and of course, to her brothers Alec and Richard and their families - Love to you all.
