“ Guerry was a great father-in-law to me and an even better grandfather to our 2 sons. He was always so welcoming and friendly to me even when I was dating his daughter. And our boys always wanted to go see him. He will truly be missed.

“ Guerry was one of my best friends when we were young. We went to school together, we played everyday in the summer together and we were in a band together. I will surely miss Guerry and my deepest condolences go to Barbara, Terry and the rest of the Chumbler family.
