“ Dear Nancy and family,

Hugh and I send our deepest sympathy to you and your family. So many Conyers Presbyterian and high school memories, I wouldn't know where to start. She was always a woman to be admired and was such a Southern lady. It is tough to lose a mother. Take care. I am sorry we will not be there today to tell you all this in person.

“ I met Melba shortly after Harry (and Bo Bolander) hired me to serve as Director of Financial Aid in 1971. Melba and Elizabeth Marshall were my two pillars of "Southern Womanhood to the MAX." Being from South Jersey and raised in Fort Lauderdale, I truly had not met women who embodied the graciousness and warmness of true southern ladies.

Melba was very kind to me. When I had major intestinal surgery in 1986 and spent 18 days in the hospital, she sent Harry over with a tureen of chicken and rice soup, once I got home. After I thanked him and asked him to give Melba a hug for Connie and I. Then I asked when I might see some of her sweet and savory pecans. Harry said that Melba knew I would ask that question and that the answer was not until I got well enough to digest them. I love how she was looking out for me, even if I wasn't!

My other favorite memory was shortly after Becky and Kevin got married. Connie and I had married just a few weeks earlier and Melba and Harry had us over for dinner. Just the four of us. With Connie being a former student less than five months before, Melba made extra efforts to help her feel as comfortable in her new role as a faculty wife. We loved her for that. The last time we saw her was when we visited her at the nursing home in Morrow. During that conversation she remembered us for a bit and we were able to cheer her up with a few stories and memories of days gone by. She will be missed by many, including us!
