“ So many thoughts running through my head , it is so surreal that you have left here on Earth, but we rejoice knowing you are no longer in pain , someone asked me what was the best memory we had , lol they were all good memories ,Michaela and Calob won't ever forget you and momma picking them up from school and stopping McDonald's for a snack . I know you are cooking up a feast up in heaven , starting with those cornbread sticks , and coming up with plans of what else you gonna cook. We all know you like dressing nice for special occasions so we are all getting our duds together for ya . We love and miss you so much , can't wait til we meet at them pearly gates one day. Love you to the moon and back!
