“ So sadden hearing that Alan passed. Condolences goes out to all of the Fambrough and Cleveland families.

Smiling this morning thinking about all the times being with Alan, first time living in Tucker, he and Alan Cleveland coming to see Maria, teenagers then and especially holidays we shared. Alan Fambrough had a big heart and so much love. Always hugged us and say Mr Banner and Mrs Banner so great to see you. He always made me feel so special and loved us, so many great memories. Alan always smiling, caring so much for his Fambrough family, Cherri, Jada, Kara and Cleveland family.

Will miss you, rest in peace. Prayers 🙏

“ Alan is my first cousin. His mother and my daddy are brother and sister. Alan and I were really close growing up as we lived on the same street in Conyers when we were really young. Many fond memories over the years at family gatherings, as we grew older, and going to his very first home on weekends to hang out and watch him and friends play cards. Through the years starting our own families, sometimes life gets in the way. But I'm so thankful to have been working at the Ford dealership at the time when that Rapture came out (that he had to come check out) and got my big hug and enjoyed a few laughs. I will always cherish the many good times and my love and prayers are with Cherie, Jada, Kara and all of us that knew and loved Alan. GBNF

“ My friendship with Alan lasted just shy of 50 years. We lived on the same street as kids. Then moved on the same street as adults. Many good memories and lots of hours playing whichever sport was in season. Rest In Peace old friend.

“ I enjoyed Alan as a frequent visitor when he was a teenager and friends with our son. What I didn't know at the time was that he not only would become a lifelong friend of our son but would marry our daughter. He also gave us two beautiful granddaughter of which he was so very proud. I wish you peace.
