It was with such a sadness hearing of the passing of our sister and a member of the prayer warriors group can't forget when she shared her testimonies and always giving thanks when prayers are answered for relatives home and abroad she enjoyed baking her favorite cakes some funny but always much humor She's a trooper showing her scars and always ended look what God has brought me through God saw it fit to take her home where she'll have a new body no more pain no more scars you'll be missed but your laughter lives on RIP member of the Prayer Warriors group

My sincere condolences to the family. May the God of comfort give you his peace during this difficult time. Sis Aldith was loved and cherished by her family. We had not stopped praying for her but God had greater plans and has robed her in her white robe and put a crown on her head. We thank God for her life and know that she's resting with him in heavenly places. God bless you all.
