

Allan Repetto

December 9, 1959 - February 11, 2025

Allan Repetto passed away February 11. Although he had been fighting cancer, he passed peacefully in his sleep-the result of a sudden cardiac event-he would be the first to say that the cancer did not win. Allan loved spending time with his family and his friends, hunting, fishing, and soccer. He lived a full and beautiful life and leaves all of us with so many memories and love.

Allan was preceded in death by his parents, John and Joan. Left to cherish his memory are his wife, Cathi; son Dylan and Dylan's fiancé, Haven-parents to the apple of his eye, Raelynn; sister, Kristen (David); brothers, Jay (Laurie) and Scott (Carrie); his aunt Joyce (Al), as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins, great nieces and nephews, and a large circle of friends.

The family will receive friends Sunday, February 23 at 2:00 pm with a celebration of life and a time to share memories beginning at 3:00 pm in the chapel at Scot Ward Funeral Services, 699 American Legion Rd., Conyers, GA. Please consider a donation in Allan's memory to The Wounded Warriors Project, Tunnels to Towers, your favorite local animal rescue, or the American Cancer Society. If you prefer a gift of flowers, please consider the Conyers Flower Shop. Condolences may be submitted online at www.scotward.com. Scot Ward Funeral Services, 699 American Legion Rd., Conyers, GA, 770-483-7216.

“ Anyone want to share the cancer that killed him so his first child can make informed medical decisions about her health. FYI.. Rebecca Cloud, first born! No mention of that in the obituary.

“ This breaks my heart to hear of Allan's passing. Lots of memories flooding about when we were younger - so glad our parents stayed lifelong friends. I love this saying found on a headstone in Ireland - Death leaves a heartache no one can heal. Love leaves a memory no one can steal.

Love and prayers to all of you!

*My dear cousin Buzzy,
Yup, that's what we called you up North. I have lots of happy memories of me & Julie playing with you & Jay up at Gram's. You are gone too soon.
Love,
Cathy*

How I miss our times together and always wished we could go back and celebrate all of our victories all over again. Alan was the BEST Goalkeeper I've ever played soccer with or have ever seen on the field. Your humor will be forever missed.
