“ My memory of Allen was many, many years ago. I worked with his sister, Vickie.
Vickie's husband Wyatt & their daughter Sherrie, had planned a surprise birthday party for Vickie. We all parked around the corner, with Allen's directing us. "Get on inside so she will not see you", he would say! Inside, Allen "was like a kid in a candy store".
He was so excited about this party for his Sister.
Anyone that ever met Allen would be touched by this sweet, kind, lovely, young in heart, young man, that sincerely loved life, his family & his friends. Vickie had always told us that Allen never met a stranger.
My condolences to my friend Vickie & to the rest of Allen's family. I know Allen's smile, laughter and love will be missed here, but he is now back with his Mom & Dad❤️
