“ Thank you, Ana, for being a wonderful sister-in-love and friend. I appreciate how you were always straight-forward, open, available, and giving. You lent me your ear and wisdom without making me feel judged. You had impeccable timing with the words of wisdom you gave.

Thank you, Ana, for being a steady support, short-term roomie, and teaching me so many great cooking tips over the years including how to make a great pot of coffee. I enjoyed binging "The Fall" with you and hearing about the politics of the day.

May you find peace and rest in the arms of your family who preceded you.
