*Andrew Morgan, was one of the nicest person I met. I knew Andrew and Tricia for over twenty years. I lived in Rockland County, New York and Tricia and Andrew in Orange County. We shared some awesome time together, barbecue, and family time. What I like most is that they love having fun. He will be truly missed by the Shaw family as our children grew up together. Trica, Siedah, AJ, and the grandchildren you are in my sincere prayers. Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.' Job 1:21. I love you guys and you are close to my heart. Until then my heart will go on singing. Death has no boundaries.

I was a student at "New Day Academy" where he worked in the Bronx and he touched so many lives and hearts from us (his students) to his co-workers. He is greatly missed 😞 Andrew helped me through many tough times in my life even when my mother passed away... just hurts more that i haven't spoken to him in a while but the love has always been there. Love you Andrew and we will meet again

Andrew was like a son to me, he lived with me briefly in Jamaica and was a part of my family until he came to the us to be with his mom Myrlin who is my friend, I was shocked to get the call on Mother's Day that he was dying!! Mother's Day will never be the same for me again. My condolences to his children and grandchildren, Trisha his brothers and sisters but most of all his mom, from me and my families we send our deepest love and sympathies. I can't begin to express the love I have for Andrew so I won't start! But I'm sure he knows how much he was loved by me just like I'm sure he didn't want me to be hurting so he kept his sickness from me love you Andrew I know you're with the lord Rest In Peace until we meet again 🙏🙏🙏 NB

Our heartfelt sympathies, love and prayers to all of Andrew's family, as well as those who loved him and mourn his passing. I remember when I met Andrew as a skinny teenager with his deep chocolate skin and thick accent. The thing that sticks out in my memory is his playful smile that hit you unexpected, and this quiet, peaceful spirit that drowned out anything else that was happening around him. Happy Homegoing Andrew, with all our love. <3

“ Our hearts goes out to the Morgan family. This is such a huge loss, words can't describe how sorry we are all feeling during this time. It was an honor to share the grandparent title with you. We will make sure your memories lives on through the lovely grand kids that we share. Your smile and lay back style was a reflection of the lovely person you were. You will be missed. May you R.I.P, until we meet again.

“ To the entire family, my deepest condolences to each of you...I spoke with Andrew on the phone for years before we actually met in person and he was so warm, loving and kind...when we finally met, I felt as though we grew up together. From my experience with him I can only imagine how it was to live with him and I know the emptiness losing him brings to you. I'm sorry I can't be there with you physically but I'm with you in spirit...May his gentle soul rest in God's eternal peace.

“ Oh my dear friend Andrew as you march into Zion the beautiful City of God, may you join with the angels and sing the song of the redeemed:

*Under His wings I am safely abiding;
Though the night deepens and tempests are wild,
Still I can trust Him, I know He will keep me;
He has redeemed me, and I am His child.
Under His wings, under His wings,
Who from His love can sever?
Under His wings my soul shall abide,
Safely abide forever.*

*Under His wings—what a refuge in sorrow!
How the heart yearningly turns to His rest!
Often when earth has no balm for my healing,
There I find comfort, and there I am blest.*

*Under His wings—oh, what precious enjoyment!
There will I abide now that life's trials are over
Sheltered, protected, no evil can harm me;
Resting in Jesus I'm safe evermore.*

Andrew, I love you brother, until we meet again.

To the family, may God bless you and keep and may you experience the favor of the Lord.

*With tender Love,

“ *My sincerest Condolences . . .
Our Morgan, glided through the halls of New Day Academy watching over us. Me, safe and secure, knowing I could count on him for whatever and many times I had to as a single woman. The young people thrived under his guidance and love. Morgan would come to my classroom seat and watch the young ones learn. Sometimes he had to get kicked out – Morgan became a distraction LOL. Most days Andrew, wanted to know what we ordering for breakfast or what we doing for lunch. More importantly, every day at 3:00 out the back door and straight to the gym. Fond memories of a BEAUTIFUL BIG MAN with a BIG HEART leave me breathless. My heart bleeds too. I know this, Andrew Morgan is a blessed man and now seats at the right hand of our Father still guiding and still loving us.
Humbly, with all my love I will never ever forget him,
Always the Ms. Before the Charlene*

You were an amazing role model for me while growing up, basically like my big brother. I saw you become a father twice and still remember the smiles I saw on your face when you would hold Sie Sie and AJ.
