“ I remember when Andy and Adam first met. I've thought of them often and will always love them both. Andy was always a sweet caring soul who was loved dearly. Gone much too soon. R.I.P.

“ Andy was a treasured friend whom I reconnected with from high school over the past few years. What a HOOT he was! Always making us laugh with his out of the blue 'one liners' and hilarious comments. He should have been a comedian, as laughter made him smile ! Andy was very caring and generous to others and brought fun with him, anywhere he went. He will be dearly missed!

“ Andy and I could make each other laugh with just a look.

Once, when I gave him a ride to various places after work, he said, "I feel like I'm out of sequence." I replied, "Well, I can fix that !" The next day I paved the floor with sequins ! To this day, I still find the odd sequin in the botom of my purse or the floor of my car.

His tenderness and generosity toward me when I was sick was macaroni & cheese from the OK Cafe if I thought I could eat that day. He gave me a plastic Jesus for my shrine, as all shrines must include a plastic Jesus.. He helped me buy a "jewel" from a jewelry store in Savannah. We both adored our cats in an over-the-top sort of way.

His intelligence and willingness to learn was admirable. His sense of humor was beyond anything I have experienced. I loved him.
