“ My fondest memories are of Anna's presents to the Sunday School Class members. She was always giving crochet blankets for our newborn grandchildren and you could always count on her to give a handmade gift to each of us at Christmas. Patrick, Adrian and Jonathan - Your mom touched each of our lives in a special way and we will all miss her. May our Lord strengthen you through this season of your lives.

Mrs. Kidd's welcoming smile and calm demeanor will forever be remembered in my heart. I will remember her kindness and funny stories about Rudy. She is gone from our sight but never from our hearts. May God's love surround you and comfort you during this season.
