

Anna Mae Rae

March 23, 1943 - June 5, 2025

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Anna Mae Rae, a beloved mother, grandmother, and friend, who left this world on June 5, 2025, at the age of 82. Anna was born on March 23, 1943, in Rochester, NY, to John and Mary Jane Bruzzo. Throughout her life, she embodied grace, compassion, and an unyielding love for her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her devoted husband, Frank Donald Rae Sr., and her beloved son, Frank Donald Rae Jr. She also mourned the loss of her brothers, Preston and Danny Davis, and her sister, Neil Martin. Their memories remained etched in her heart, and she cherished the moments they shared.

Anna is survived by brother, Eddie Davis, her loving son, Woody (Staci) Rae; her daughters, Danielle Rae and Melissa Jordan; and her son Michael (Amanda) Rae. She was a proud grandmother of 13 grandchildren and was eagerly anticipating the arrival of her first great-grandchild, a testament to her legacy of love that will continue to grow.

A woman of many passions, Anna was an ardent fan of the Atlanta Braves and found immense joy in spending time at the beach. Her love for NASCAR brought her closer to friends and family, as she enjoyed sharing the thrill of the races with those she loved. Anna had a caring and loving spirit, and she loved fiercely, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of everyone she encountered. As we bid farewell to Anna Mae Rae, we will carry forward her spirit of love and caring, ensuring that her legacy lives on in all of us. She will be deeply missed, but her warmth and kindness will forever remain in our hearts.

Her graveside service will be at Fairview Memorial Gardens on Monday June 9, 2025. The time of the service is to be determined.
