Austin was part of our Wednesday tennis foursome for many years and was a fun and solid competitor. He always exhibited true sportsmanship and maintained a positive attitude on the courts. I truly missed playing with him the past few years. Thoughts and prayers for the family.

“ I was his neighbor for over 40 +years. I will miss him walking up and down the street. He had the best vegetable garden in the neighborhood. He was kind. May God welcome you home. Peace be with Wilma and the family.
