Barbara, I'm gonna miss you something terribly. I can just remember the times that we all had a great time together. You and I never had no crosswords. You was always the sweetest woman ever and my children loved you and they used to say all the time he was the best cook in the world and your chicken and dumplings was out of this world. I know you're happier now you up there with Leland, and Alvin, Jack and Charlene, your mom and daddy so I know you're more happier up there than you were here but we all gonna bemissI love you very very much and see you one day you're always being in my memories. Love you very much.
