

Barry Miller

November 22, 1938 - July 18, 2023

Barry James Miller, 11/22/1938 - 7/18/2023, was born in Brooklyn NY to Parents Julius F. Miller and Estelle (Stern) Miller. He grew up in Lawrence, NY and attended Cheshire Academy in CT. He graduated from Roanoke College, Salem, VA with a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology and then from New York University with a graduate degree in computer science. Barry proudly served in the US Army Reserves with an honorable discharge.

Barry worked for 40+ years in NYC as a market research analyst. Before that he was employed by the City of New York, working closely with high school students planning their futures. Barry's many interests and hobbies included chess, reading, computer game development, magic, investment club and the love of his life, the NY Stock Exchange. An avid sports fan, favorites included the NY Knicks, The Dodgers, and Atlanta United Soccer FC. He coached his kid's soccer teams and was a referee's biggest nightmare. Forever the jokester, he often would laugh at his own jokes before the punchline.

He is survived by his loving Wife, Helen (Granich) Miller, who he married April 4, 1965. They raised their two beautiful children in East Brunswick, NJ. First came Ilisa M (Miller) Pollard and her Husband Bucky Pollard IV and then Randy H Miller and his Wife Jill (Alpert) Miller. Barry was also blessed with his pride and joy, Granddaughter, Gabrielle Raina Miller. He also leaves behind his Brother, Stephen Miller, Sister In-law Jane Miller, nephew Chad Miller and other nieces and nephews.

In the end his life touched everyone he ever met in a very special way including his lifelong close friends. Beloved Husband, Father, Grandfather, Brother and Uncle, he is forever loved and missed.
