“ I worked with Mrs.Hester at a place call Gordon's manufacturing she was a calm lady. She was the one who fixed the reject clothing when they was'nt right, Lot of time when I wouldn't have a ride home she would give me one because I stayed in Milstead touR.I.P..Mrs.Hester you live a good and long life. Laura Hill “Laura Jean and Neal, I am so sorry to hear about Mrs Bea passing. She was such a strong lady and always had a smile and "I love you" for everybody. I remember the big 100th birthday party at the church. The expression on her face when Mike Morgan took the mic and started talking after Hannah. It startled her to hear his deep voice and for a second I think she might have thought God was at her birthday party. She was truly a great lady as is evidenced by the children she raised. My thoughts and prayers will be with you in the days ahead. Much love to both of you.
