“ Martha and family,

I was so sad to read the news of Ben's passing. After all of our days together at Life of GA I felt like I 'knew' him. So it feels like a loss to me also. I am praying that the Lord will surround you with His peace and strength in days ahead.

“ Martha,

Our hearts go out to you and the family in the loss of Benny. I would like to share a story that I'm sure you remember. He had fallen from a horse I think, and had to wear the halo for his neck injury. He told me that he fell off the horse and it was 10 minutes before someone from K-mart came out and unplugged it. Great sense of humor. I have enjoyed Benny and your friendship for all these years.

May God shower you, Lee, and Gayle, and all the family with peace and comfort.

We know where he is today.

Love you all

“ *Martha,
I saw the notice in the AJC. I am so sorry and know that you will miss him. God is good and Bennie is with Him. My thoughts are with you, Gayle, Lee and your precious grandchildren.
God be with you. You have many good memories in this time of loss.*

*Love you,
Pat Goldston*

“ God gained an incredible angel yesterday. Benny was a true gentleman, sophisticated and wise. He was full of warmth and care. He gave the most invaluable advice to his friends and family. His life was full of experiences. He is a man whom I respect, How lucky I am to have a Father in Law so perfect! Please continue to pray for our family over the next few days as we make arrangements and pray for strength as we say our final goodbyes. We love you so Benny!
