

Betty Cline

July 27, 1929 - October 5, 2013

Betty Cline, 84, formerly of Man, W.V. passed away Saturday, October 5, 2013 at Rockdale Healthcare Center in Conyers, GA. Born July, 27, 1929 in Baileysville, W.V. she was the daughter of Lee and Rosalie Short. Betty was preceded in death by her husband of 65 years, Robert Cline and her siblings, Mildred, Raymond and Howard Short.

Betty was an English and Literature teacher in Logan County Schools working at Man Jr. High and Logan Central Jr. High until she retired in 1991. Shortly after retiring, she moved to Snellville, GA. and became a teacher with DeKalb County Schools. She retired, yet again, but continued to substitute teach up until age 80. Betty loved teaching and being with students. She could also be found backstage at The Aracoma Story for several years helping out with anything that needed to be done. Her loving and supportive presence will be sorely missed.

She is survived by her daughter, Jenni Caruso of Conyers, GA.; her son, Danny Cline of Charleston, W.V. and granddaughters, Fiona Caruso and Caitlin Cline.

In lieu of flowers, a donation to The Walk to End Alzheimer's in Betty's name would be greatly appreciated. This is the link to Jenni Caruso's personal donation page http://act.alz.org/site/TR/Walk/GA-Georgia?px=7637461&pg=personal&fr_id=3202

Scot Ward Funeral Services, 699 American Legion Road, Conyers, GA 30012, 770-483-7216.