“Ma” Croker was a shining light wherever she went, but for those of us in softball she was the BEST.

How many games of Phil’s she watched over her journey is a staggering number, but Ma was always there to support her son. She would cheer him on from her reserved parking place, set aside for her by the league with her own sign: RESERVED FOR MA CROKER. It was the best seat at Munzer Field.

Ma was so happy when Phil made great plays or created great hits (very often to the sorrow of the opposing team). “That’s my boy!” She would say proudly. When she wasn’t pleased with his performance, she would say, “Now, why did he do that?”

Several of us battled to be her favorite adopted son, and Ma always knew how to make all of us feel as if we were the most important. What a doll!

For those who had the honor to know her, that reserved parking space will always belong to Ma Croker for she touched so many lives with her sparkle and grace.

Betty Croker was a beautiful lady inside and out, for all her 98 years. As a neighborhood childhood friend of Gail's, i always felt like I had a second home at her house and I was always welcome. She had a wonderful smile and contagious laugh. She always had time to spend with us and it was always fun to be around her. Thank you Miss Betty for being such an important and positive person in our lives. Love to you till we see you again. Thanks for the love you gave to all of us. My love and prayers are with the family.
