“ I knew Betty years ago in Avondale. I was engaged to her young brother-in-law, Lloyd. Our paths crossed again when I visited the Church of God. We tried to keep in touch as long as I lived in Conyers. I knew from the start that Betty Haney was a woman of God, not on Sundays but 24/7 and her devotion to our Lord was a lasting influence on my Christian life. I also knew her charming John Jr. When I helped him with his auto insurance. To each of you children and grandchildren, make sure you make preparations to meet your Grandmother and Granddad John in Heaven. R I P sweet Betty. Anne Jackson White

“ I have always known Betty and her entire family. They have always been loving and Godfearing people. My, My, the many years I enjoyed Betty, Maggie and Bro. D. L. Brantley and sometimes Bro. L. W. Spell sing at Bridgeford Church of God. Betty, Maggie, and Bro. D. L. were locally known as THE BRIDGEFORD TRIO. They were such a blessing to so many people. They sang at many, many funerals. Betty was such a loving person. Just one of God's Saints. Family my prayers are with you. She will be missed.

“ I meet my Aunt Betty when I was a young boy. Uncle John's sister, Ethel, my mother, found herself in difficult circumstances when her husband passed and she was left to raise five children. I was the youngest and not in school yet. My mother had to work and needed help. Uncle John asked his new wife to allow me to stay with them Monday through Friday one or two weeks a month. Aunt Betty did not flinch even though she was about to have her first child. She treated me with love. She was always happy and had a smile on her face. She allowed me to be a part of her and her families lives. My Aunt Betty was a rock to her family and her church. She was devoted to God. She was one of the finest and most down to earth woman that I have ever known. I will smile when I think of Aunt Betty. I hope I think of her often.

“ My best memory of Sister Haney is when she and Brother Haney used to sing, Telephone to Glory, at Loganville Church if God. She was one of the sweetest and Godly women I’ve ever met. I’m glad to have known her. She will be missed. (Marie Morton).
