So very sorry to hear of Betty's passing. I've known Betty for many years. We meant through the postal service delivering mail to the wrong addresses after we moved to McGiboney Road about 18 years ago. Though I didn't look forward to receiving the wrong mail, it gave me a chance to visit with Betty and that was always a very nice visit. She was such a loving, kind lady. I will miss her and our visits greatly. Weyman, Jason, and all of Betty's family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones!

“ My prayers and thoughts go out to the Smith family. Although I never had the pleasure of meeting Betty Jean, I have had the pleasure of knowing Weyman; what a tremendous man he is, and I do believe I am fortunate to know him and be a friend to you Weyman. God bless.

Highest regards,

“ My condolences and prayers are with you, Weyman and family, in the loss of Betty Jean. I have many happy memories shared with you when we were at East Gate Church, and I will cherish those days we were together. May God just enfold you in His loving arms and carry you through these days of sorrow and grief. My prayers are with you through the service and days to come.
In Christ's love, Wilma Thompson

“ *Special thoughts and heartfelt prayers are with you today and always Weyman, Jason, and all of your immediate family and friends, wishing you all as much peace as possible during this difficult time.
If tears could build a stairway and memories were a path, I would walk right up that path to heaven and bring her back again.
Because I know' when someone you love becomes a memory the memory becomes a treasure.*

*There were no farewell words spoken,
There was no time to say goodbye,
Betty Jean was gone before we knew it, and only God knows why.
Betty Jean and I prayed and cried together in distance Cousin to cousin, when our mama's left our sides ... but now I know she's next to them walking side by side.*

*and Betty Jean....
They say there is a reason
They say that time will heal
But neither time or reason Will change the way we feel For no one knows the heartache
That lies behind our smiles
No one knows how many times
We have broken down and cried
We all want to tell you something So there won't be any doubt Your so wonderful to think of But so hard to be without,*
