“ Betty was one of those most unique people that once you know her, you never forget her. Betty leaves behind a life of lovingly raising children, serving her community, operating a business, and supporting her families endeavors. I have known her 45 years. She never was without a quick quip whether she liked something or not. She did not hold back. Her last few years she lived in her own world, but still could communicate with you for awhile. My mother shared a room with Betty at the Yellow Brick House and every time I was there, I tried to bring up events from the past to stimulate a conversation. Sometimes it worked and other times not. The Hooly, our name for the St. Patrick Day parties she hosted for many years, was a good pick because I could usually get a smile and nod of her head when I would mention certain events. Who could forget the "brew" she concocted for people to drink! Only those with strong sea legs were able to imbibe! She never told her recipe for the brew!

We are all going to miss her spirit and joy for life, but we know she is peacefully resting in Bill's arms. Rest Lady Betty and know your were loved and will be missed.

I met Betty on my way to Germany in October 1986 on the plane. She was on the way from Phoenix to Atlanta. She gave me her address and we were pen pals since then. Her daughter Susan and family came coincidentally to my hometown in 2001 for some years and it has grown a friendship between us. I've got to see my friend Betty and Bill when they came to Germany and I have just good memories of this time. It hurts, that they all are gone already, but it gives consolation that they are all together again. You will always be in my heart.

“ Betty Spivey was one of the residents at Yellow Brick House who I really enjoyed being with on the Sundays I taught the Sunday School and days I would drop by to take treats for special days like Christmas and Valentines. She was always singing, and I would join in with her many times. We just had a great time together. When Betty left Yellow Brick House, I kept up with news about her from Dawn. I kept her on my prayer list and prayed God would help her to keep hearing the music. I saw her obituary in the newspaper today, and I wanted to tell you how sorry I am for your loss of such a sweetheart. Her sense of humor and joyful personality will be greatly missed, but I know Heaven Is ringing with her music. May God just wrap His sweet loving arms about you and carry you through these days of sadness and grief.

Sincerely,
