“ How the years flew by with Betty and Charlie up the hill from our house. Our girls would run up the hill when we got home from school to tell them we were home. Amanda, would dance into the den and chatter away. She loved it when Betty would wrap up some pound cake for her to take home. Laurie would quietly fill her in on her day. Mrs. T. was a good listener. We loved getting to know our neighbors.

There came a day when Mr. T. passed away. Our hearts hurt for Betty and we knew a real sadness. Then, when Mrs. T moved away, the girls said no one else could take her place. It was a sad day for us. We would miss her.

Now, as Betty has reached the full circle of life....Our hearts are sad, but we know she is happy and well again with Charlie. God has healed her. Now, she can live eternally in Heaven. We look forward to seeing them again one day and having a piece of truly" heavenly pound cake" when we do.

We'll miss you and love you, Betty!

Robin and Randy Qualman, Laurie Q. Petter, and Amanda Q. Edwards

Our love and prayers are with all of the family....

“ My heart is broken over the loss of this sweet saint, Betty came into my life when I was fifteen years old and began dating Jean, eventually marrying her in 1967. Mrs. 'T' was the quintessential mother in law, always loving and caring but never interfering. After being called to serve in the Navy in '67 Mrs. 'T' would have nothing less than for Jean to move back home where she could insure her daughter's safety. RIP sweet lady till we meet again on those celestial shores.
