“ The Peppers family extends their deepest condolences to all the Huggins family. Bobie Wayne will miss their phone conversations...he was so happy to reconnect after not talking to him for so long. I know he enjoyed reminiscing with him about their time growing up together. May God bless your family with peace and comfort.

“ He was one of a kind! Loved his family, his country, and the military! Was a selfless and giving man, always doing something to help others that were less fortunate. The world has lost a truly beautiful soul. Go on, Bobby, and catch up with dad. I know he's been waiting for you. Heaven just got a lot less boring.
