“ Shirley, sad to hear of your husband 's passing. I pray that you feel God's presence and comfort during this time. My mama was Christine George. She was so fond of you. I remember your husband painting at my parents house on Hicks Circle.

“ I am deeply sorry to hear about Bobby. I thought of him as a brother. I remember all the good times that we shared visiting each other and going places. All the laughter done us good! My prayers are with Shirley, Clint, Marilyn, Jacob, Mindi, and Joe. May God bless and comfort each of you forever!

“ I spent several summer visits at Bobby & Shirley's home. I always enjoyed spending time with them growing up. One of our favorite things to do was catch Bobby in the "annual" Thanksgiving photo asleep in a recliner somewhere after a big feast. Looking back through pictures, those still always give our family a warm laugh. Loved Bobby and will miss him.

“ For many years Bobby, Jack Milam and I would go to Iowa in the fall to hunt pheasants. The trip was always one of the highlights of the year, wonderful fellowship and good hunting with friends. Bobby was a good man and I'll miss him.
