“ I don't even know where to begin Brenda! You were the most nurturing, loving, selfless, amazing, and absolutely adoring person I have known. Thank you for making crazy costumes with me, drinking coffee, and just being like a mama to me these past 7 years. There are so many memories that we have shared and I am so blessed to have had every wonderful memory and moment touch my heart. I love you and will miss you greatly, but I know for sure you have been reunited with Doug and are watching over us all in heaven. 💖

“ Brenda I will truly miss you!! We were brought together by being costume mamas at Heritage High School and at Davis Middle School!! You were always willing to help no matter what even when you did not have a student in the program. I love you Brenda!! I will miss your laughter and dedication!! Love Raquel and all the other costume mamas!’

“ I had the privilege of knowing Brenda from holiday visits over to the West side of town (Douglasville). Although we were not blood related I never knew the difference. She was always a delight to be around. There is comfort in knowing the great reunion is coming.
