“ I played soccer with Brendan at RYSA. One of the most humble, tenacious, and loving guys I have ever met. He used to smile so much we gave him the nickname “smiles.” Truly a one of a kind young man. And a friend I will not forget. I'm grateful for our time together as a team. I will keep that smile close in my memories. God bless you Brendan.

“ My heart is broken for the Conn family! Many prayers for all of you. Brendan played football for me and was a great example of an athlete who gave everything he had every play. I’ll never forget his long touchdown runs or making plays on defense! The Eagle family will miss him dearly!
