

Brittany Diondrea Moss

September 1, 1989 - December 31, 2023

Brittany Diondrea Moss was born September 1, 1989, in Atlanta Georgia to Melodie and Carl Vernon Moss. She attended E. J. Swint Elementary, Jonesboro Middle, and graduated from Faith Academy in Henry County. Brittany accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and served under the leadership of her late grandmother Reverend Annie Moss at Body of Christ Deliverance, she served in the choir.

Brittany's professional career encompassed working alongside her mother as a braider at Showstopper Weave Shop. As a braider, she would amaze her co-workers and management with her record-breaking timing of completing the braiding task.

Brittany was known for her humorous personality and amazing smile. Her dance moves would bring joy to any environment and remind all to dance like nobody's watching. She often said, 'You know what I'm saying' or joking with her siblings by saying 'Don't let me put these monkey beaters on you.' While being a free spirit she could still be described as calm, loving, and reserved.

Brittany was preceded in death by her Grandmother Annie Nell Moss, Grandfather Charlie W. Moss, and Uncle Charles B. Moss.

Left to cherish her memories are her loving and devoted Mother, Melodie Moss; Father Carl Vernon Moss (Tonya), Grandmother Shirley Pitts; Grandfather Ellis Brown (Marlene); Sisters Quateasha Buchanan (Sean), Ifadamitan Olaifa (Ifakolade) aka Carnesha Moss, and Tanyetta Hill; Brothers Carl Moss, Jr. and Caritez Moss (Shanice); Neices Ashanti Buchanan, Milani

Moss, and Megan Moss; Nephews Malichi Lewis-Bey, Sean Buchanan Jr., Caden Moss, and Rasean Buchanan; Aunts Gwendolyn Mason, Teresa Willis (Rodney), Veronica Burnice, Sabrina Tillman (Marcus), and Sharline Moss; Uncles Ellis Brown Jr. and Antonis Brown and a host of cousins, extended family and friends.
