“ Bruce was my childhood fishing buddy and a smiling face through the years after.

“ Growing up at Grandma & Grandpa Bond's, Bruce was my buddy, protector, big brother. We played & joked, walked & talked for hours, & worked together. Since I can remember, his special nickname for me was "Peach". Even 3 months ago, Bruce still called me "Peach". Bruce was a loving & happy person thoroughly in love with his whole family, but he always made me feel the most loved and important. I know it was his devotion that he easily gave to everyone he loved.

“ One of the most sensitive people, so loved by many. Personally I am thankful of the last time Bruce and I were together... Riding to the store with the top down on my car and him just giggling! Save room for me dear friend!

“ Bruce was a dear friend who was more like a brother. We enjoyed eating lunch together, shopping at the mall and riding around Conyers. He was a friendly guy who never met a stranger. He spoke to everyone he met when we were out eating or shopping, and if they would talk to him, he would carry on a conversation as long as they would. He was sweet, gentle and kind. I will miss Bruce so much. This family has lost a prize. Love you, Bruce. RIP
