“ Byron has been a very good friend...more like family. My children remember having so much fun with him as do I. It still feels like a bad dream. I will always be here for Pat when she needs me and I will always remember you. Rest in paradise Byron.

“ What I will always remember about Byron:

*His big, beautiful, catching smile.
How much he loves his daughter.
How much he means to his mother.
That he found Jesus.*

“ Byron will always be my sixth son. He was a best friend to one of my boys and for the first year when I met him, always insisted that I should meet his mom - he said we have so much in common and would be good friends. Well, I finally took his advice, met his mom, and she has been my bestie best friend ever since. I guess Byron knew Patricia and I would need each other to get through this life's journey. I am ever so thankful Byron was persistent. I am ever so thankful that he was a part of Patricia;s life and a part of my family. I am ever so thankful that he was a good friend and brother to my kids. I am ever so thankful he is now with God.We still love you Byron!
