"As you go through life you hear of all the people saying how they don't get along with their spouse's parents. I'm here to tell you now, that nothing could be further from the truth. Maybe I'm just one of the lucky ones that married into a loving and caring family. Some of my greatest memories is with Lee and Cat camping in Pigeon Forge. Lee and Cat made everywhere we went a wonderful adventure. I loved it when Lee would carry Cat's purse. He said it was the only time he got to carry the money. I know right now Lee has Cat's purse over his shoulder. He always had funny little things he did just to get a laugh. God blessed me when I married Vickie. Not only did I get the best wife in the world, I also got the best mother-in-law and father-in-law in the world. I will always have them in my heart. Until I see you in heaven. Love, Ken." Scot Ward Funeral Services, 699 American Legion Road, Conyers, GA 30012, 770-483-7216.
