“ Callie and I have been friends for over 10 years.
We both bore incredible sons in the same time frame, and they have grown up close as brothers, I am so thankful for that.
Over our years in friendship we shared many ideas when it comes to raising our boys.
One of the cutest things she taught me was the term “listening ears”, who'd a thought, just simply ask them to open their ears, while also telling them kindly to shhhhhhhh!
Brilliant right!
Another favorite is when she would say
“Use your words“ to our boys to get them out of whatever panic they were in, So simple yet so powerful!
I took these small and helpful phrases and I implemented them as my own.
Her and I would talk and share for hours about everything and anything, we never held back. We trusted each other.
We all need friends like that, and I had one in her...
Callie was simply incredible ❤️
I wish we had more time, but you were called home, and that is something we must learn to accept, and to have faith & trust in our Lord.

Rest easy my friend, you will be missed, treasured and loved forever...until we meet again.
~Love,
Lynette

“ I will always remember that beautiful smile! I think of the country music song that says - she don't know she's beautiful though many times I've told her. Callie Michelle didn't know just how beautiful she was inside and out and how that gorgeous smile touched the lives of so many people. Life won't be the same without you in it. Praying for everyone who loved Callie dearly to be comforted as only God can do. May He touch you in the deepest part of your spirit where the pain is the greatest and bring peace and comfort. Love and hugs to all.

“ Remembering Michelle as the always smiling redhead with her boys by her side. She referred to them as her “Irish Twins”. She was her Grandmother Claudine’s joy and delight. This branch of our family has had much sorrow in the past few years. My heart is broken for Susan and all her immediate family. Prayers for peace. Love to all. Carolyn Putnam Wright.
