“ I Remember In The Early 80's When I First Met Carol. We Worked As Auditors At Sears On Ponce DeLeon, Atlanta. After Sears Closed, We Lost Contact. We Shared So Much Fun And Laughter. She Was Such A Dear Friend. I Was Thinking Of Her And Decided To Find Her On Facebook; Instead, I Found This. Rest Peacefully In Heaven.

“ The short time that I knew Carol, she's a person that you will never forget. She loved to chit-chat about going on trips and especially to the beach. I enjoyed seeing pictures of her trips and reading about her trips on facebook. She was full of life, and will be missed.

“ I missed my daily phone call from Carol. We would have been going out to eat tonight. She has been such a support for me and Eddie for the past 14 years and been there for us through all of the trying times during Eddie's close calls with his heart. I can't believe she is not here anymore. This will definitely take time to even accept. Love you Carol Dobbs !!

“ I met Carol at Home Depot when we all worked in the Finance Dept. She was always a sweet person and fun to be around. We all moved around eventually and got different positions in the company and then in time lost track of one another. Then in time we both retired and only made contact through Facebook just recently. Will never forget she came to my surprise 50th birthday dinner with other friends from Home Depot and was so excited to see them all. That was just Carol, always doing something special for someone else. I am honored to have known you, RIP

“ Carol and I had such a wonderful time in Cabo!! Because she is so outgoing, we got to meet so many people, learn of the best places to go and eat. Some of these friendships continued on after we got back! Carol was like a magnet wherever she went - always starting conversation with complete strangers and ending up making a friend with them.

I have met some wonderful people by just being in her company! I have always admired her and will truly miss her!
