“ Sweet Kyle . . . it is late, and I was finishing up my Mission Friends' plans for tomorrow evening and was thinking about my little Tyler in my class . . . that I think I accidentally called you Tyler?? Oh me. I need to go to bed!
Please forgive me.
I certainly know you are Kyle.
I love your family so much and am praying for you all . . .

“ I remember Mrs. Carol always being so interested in me and so sweetly asking me questions about how I was doing, etc, when I would see her at church. I remember how excited she was for me when she met Jason and heard I was getting married! She loved First Baptist Conyers so much and was dedicated to it . . . and loyal to her family. Beth, Steve, Tyler . . . and Mr. Price, you all have loved her so well, as she has bravely battled this illness. Praying for strength to let her go, and peace that she is in the arms of Jesus. Much love to you and all my condolences,
Susan Gaulding Laiche (and family)
