“ I am honored to have known Carol Rice. She was a true model of living life to the fullest and grabbing every opportunity to enjoy it. I have many fond memories of travels, adventures, great meals, and lots of fun times! Absolutely nothing would stop this woman! She loved God, She loved her family as no other could. She loved her friends, and always, always had a smile to share. I cannot remember any time that she told me no or refused to jump in and help whenever she was needed. My prayers and thoughts are with all of you.
