

Cassandra B Parker

August 29, 1941 - January 27, 2026

Cassandra Braswell Parker passed away on Tuesday, Jan. 27, 2026 at Northside Hospital in Atlanta, following a short illness. She was 84 years old. Mrs. Parker was born in Birmingham, Ala., and was the daughter of Charles and Hazel Braswell. She is survived by Franklin Parker, her husband of 61 years, and the couple's five children, Kevin (Kit) Parker, Cassie Reynolds (Eric), Wendy (Paige) Intonato, Melanie Barry (Michael), and Brock Parker (Susan). Mrs. Parker is also survived by 10 grandchildren, Adelaine Reynolds, Brody Reynolds, Audrey Reynolds, Amelia Reynolds, Braylon Reynolds, Parker Volpe (Jason), Paxton Coole, Caroline Parker, Bo Parker and Lexie Parker, as well as two great-grandchildren, Dominic and Jaxon. She is also survived by her brothers Dan Braswell (Daisy) and Chip Braswell (Glenda), and was preceded in death by her sister Ann Alexander.

Mrs. Parker attended Auburn University and Abilene Christian College. She was a member of the Conyers Church of Christ, served as a Sunday school leader, Girl Scout leader, and was a tenacious mother whose love for her children and grandchildren was a force of nature. Cassandra was also an expert seamstress, and in her later years spent time sewing play dresses for her granddaughters. Her talents in the kitchen, passed down from her mother, were renowned.

Mrs. Parker will be cremated, and the family will hold a private memorial at Lake Martin in Alabama where she vacationed throughout her life.

In lieu of flowers, the family respectfully requests donations to Georgia Agape serving orphaned children, or Rainbow Omega, which serves adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities.
