“ Grandma! Do you know how many strange sayings I say because of you!? Like “Whatcha huntin?” Or “Quit makin love to the remote!” Haha You taught me so much during those summers in the country. I would’ve been an even bigger wimp now if not for everything you instilled in me. You are the strongest, fiercest soul I’ve ever known and I look forward to the continued support your spirit will be sending down to me from up above. Thank you. And I love you forever.

“ Grandma ❤️ It's crazy how we all know death comes for everyone and somehow I thought it would skip you. I'm kicking myself for all the times KK told me “Go see your grandparents . Go see your grandparents.” Just always thought there would be more time. I remember summers in Savannah like it was yesterday . Getting yelled at to stay in or stay out because we were letting out all the good air . Not being allowed to leave the table until ALL our food was gone . Being scolded for laughing or “resting” my eyes in church . You always urged me to keep singing and these last few months you asked me everytime to start again because it's a gift . Well you were also a gift and i didn't realize it because i always had you and now I wish i let you know more often . You will be dearly missed by so many people . Love you !

"Praying that the good Lord will show you the way through this valley of sorrow, that he will lead you beside the still waters, restore your soul, and comfort you with the same deep love that will one day welcome us into heaven."

Be assured, there is a special comfort in knowing that the words "Welcome Home" have been heard in heaven as the many memories of Charlene's life remain here in our hearts.

We love each of you and we're praying for you all.

“ Grandma,

You were my best friend for most of my life. You embraced all of your grandchildren with open arms and helped raise nearly all of them in your home. Each friend that I introduced you to, you greeted them by saying “Hi, you can call me Grandma.”

It hurts so much to know that I will never again be able to touch you, kiss your face, and drink whatever was in your cup that was sure to be watered down after filling it to top with ice 😞

You were an AMAZING wife, mother, and grandmother. Thank you for showing me how it's done.

YOU ROCK!

Love Chelly
