“ Charles was so well loved by everyone in our office. He made us all smile and his good looks only made me pray that I would be as handsome when I approached his age. We all will miss him, but will never forget him. It was our pleasure to have been his friend. God bless you all.

“ Dear Carol and Doug,
I am so sorry for your loss. I remember the quiet, steady kindness of Charles. It was always a pleasure to see your family at Ousley. I know you will miss him. May God be with each member of your family and may Jesus guide Charles' soul to everlasting life in His presence. Janet
