“ Richard Draper always wished for this to happen, he used to tell me that Karma would have its day with Mr. Minor since he was forced work in a toxic environment at Diversity without adequate protection. After Mark's death, he said "he had it coming". Richard is a cruel human being.

“ Mark Minor was my best friend during my teenage years. Mark and some of the other guys would come over to our house (in the country) on Sunday afternoons and play football. I have so many wonderful memories of Mark Minor and Don Sanderlin.

We didn't see each other for 35 years, but hit it off again the next time we met (at his mother's funeral). Mark came back to Memphis to say good bye to his friends a couple of months before he passed away. Don Sanderlin and I had dinner with him at The Silver Caboose in Collierville. We talked and laughed for hours.

That was the last time I saw him, but I will never forget the story he told me of how he became a Christian. He was riding his bike in Collierville on a Saturday and had a flat tire. He pushed the bike to Willie Hawkins service station to get it repaired. Willie asked him where we attended church. Mark didn't belong to a church at the time. Willie told him that he would fix the tire for free if he would visit his Sunday School class at FBC Collierville. Mark started attending regularly and saw something different in the people there that he wanted. Not long after, he made a lifetime commitment to Christ.

Mark told me that he had an awesome life, and if God called him home, he was ready to go. He is home now, perfectly healthy and completely fulfilled. I look forward to seeing him again one day.

“Your family have my deepest sympathy. While words fail to capture the pain of losing a loved one, we look forward to the time when words will fail to capture the joy of having our heavenly Father return your dear one to you.”
