Her heart was in teaching preschool to the 'Little Lambs' at Grace Covenant Presbyterian Preschool and heading the Christmas programs. She was very selfless, with an infectious smile and sweet spirit. She never met a stranger. She loved children and often invited neighborhood kids for dinner. She and her high school graduating class had a strong relationship and still returned for reunions. Charlotte loved the outdoors, especially the flowers, hummingbirds, and dragonflies in her garden. She was also very fond of the ocean and collecting seashells at the beach. She was very creative, loved painting and even wrote a novel. A lover of music and dancing, her favorite was 'The Twist'. She and Ron were married nearly 59 years and she always made sure Ron was taken care of. Funeral

“ I had not seen Charlotte in a few years. But growing up with one of my best friends, Andrea. She was my 2nd Mom. I lived several houses down. Constantly at her home. Years later. She taught both my kids at Preschool. When my son was in her class. At The Thanksgiving extravaganza. My son was the Turkey cause she wanted him to. Lol. So many fond memories. They will forever be in my heart. I loved her and her family. ❤️
