“ I met Cindy when she rented a booth at Lilburn Antique Mall. Her creativity and pure talent was on display and I always felt that she had one of our very best booths! Brian, Sandra and I are so sorry for your loss! Mel Sanders

“ I have so many childhood memories of Cindy, and the girls when we were young. Like Jason I agree that her laugh was infectious. I remember summers and skinny dipping at the cottage, I remember being at a cottage/farm and Cindy getting kicked by a horse, oh my did she every have bruise on her leg. I also got to visit her once when I was in Atlanta for a software trade show, and I remember thinking how quickly her accent had become so American with a southern drawl. I also remember meeting Brian thinking they were such a good match for each other.

I mostly remember that Cindy, like her siblings was so creative and talented, with such a bubbly personality that put you at ease and made you laugh. I know she has had a life long struggled with controlling her diabetes and she left us all too soon.

To Brian, Kim, Mel, Jamie, Sarah, JP, Uncle Don you have my deepest sympathies and you are all in my thoughts today.

“ It is with great sadness that I heard of Cindy's passing, she was such a wonderful little girl, always smiling, the most beautiful blue eyes, so inquisitive and full of fun. She grew into a most beautiful young woman and happy wife. Our paths parted but she has always been in my thoughts. I am so blessed to have had you in my life, rest in peace Dear One. Aunt Suzanne

“ Unfortunately growing up in Alberta I did not get to see my eastern cousins very much so most of my memories of Cindy are from when I young lad and we would travel back home for the summers from England. But I was lucky enough in the last 10 years to travel to Atlanta for work and get to visit Cindy. I’m sure some of you are aware that Cindy was not a good driver and the day that she came to pick my wife and my in laws and myself up at the hotel is a day that we will never forget. From the crazy lane changing to the conversation with on star who by the way new her on a first name basis our trip to Buckhead was full of laughs and adventure ( I do think we might have feared for our lives a few times) I’m glad that I got to spend a little extra time with my cousin later in life. She was beautiful person with and infectious laugh. May she Rest In Peace.
Love,

Brian and girls, I'm really sorry for the news of Cindy. I will always remember you two very much in love and good and hard times you both endured. My memories will last for ever of a happy couple living in the sunshine. Brian you especially must be strong and live your life knowing that sometimes life is shorter for some, and we must go on for the sake of loving who we lost. Again very sorry, and please take care
