“ Harold,
I was so sad to hear of Dan's passing. Fran told me this morning.
My mom Pauline was so fond of him. He was so dear and thoughtful to her. You both made her lonely days very fulfilled. He was so kind to share you so often.
My deepest sympathy for your loss.

“ Darling Harold,
When I told you I'd be there tomorrow I assumed I could find a friend to cover a promise I'd made. I promised to take my friend to Piedmont Hospital for a by-pass operation and wait until her daughter arrived to leave. The daughter has taken many days off and wanted to use 1/2 a day tomorrow so she could remain with her after the operation Thurs. and Fri. I have called everyone who knows us both, but can find no one to fulfill the promise I made to be there for her. Please forgive me. I will not be at the viewing or the funeral, but promise to call you toward the end of the week to arrange a meeting with all the Streve girls and you at the Colonnade. We'll spend the evening remembering wonderful things about Dan and sharing with you our love for him. Be strong and remember the wonderful life you shared with Dan. You and I are so lucky; we found life partners for whom our love and respect grew throughout the years. Remember that, dear friend.
