“ When I worked with Smitty at Honey Creek Golf and Country Club I dare say very few people there knew his first name was really Clark. For the longest time he was just Smitty to me. Smitty was a true gentleman in every respect and would go out of his way to help anyone who needed it. I enjoyed greatly the many years I worked with him, his smiling face and his advise when I ask for it. God speed Smitty. You were a good man and friend.

“ Thank you for your call Kathy. I'm so saddened to hear of Smitty's passing and so grateful he and I spoke recently on our birthday. I've known Smitty over 20 years and he was and still will continue to be such a huge blessing in my life for all the wonderful memories I have of our friendship. Since my move to Denver I haven't gotten to see him in person and have missed that. He so loved his family and felt like I got to know all of you through him, watched the grandchildren grow up and start families of their own through pictures. He was so proud of you all!
One of the stories I'll share is when he helped my Dad install an arbor in my front yard, although Smitty was almost 10 years older- my Dad still recants how Smitty ran circles around him doing the work. Anyone that knew him probably has similar memories of his energy level and work ethic.
Such a sweet sweet man and will be greatly missed.
