“ I'm so glad Weyman lived so long. I was glad to see him at the Glaze Reunion back a few years ago. As a small child we all were together often when Papa Luther Glaze lived out past us in the big house. We all grew older and established our own lives and things changed here in America. I loved him from childhood as all the family I knew at the time.

I've lived outside Georgia most of my life. You will miss him and praise the Lord we have a hope of seeing him and all God's people again at the resurrection.

Love all of you in Christ Jesus our Lord..

“ Mr. Weyman will always be remembered as a kind-hearted, selfless, Godly man. When he spoke, those around him listened. His prayers were genuine and beautiful. I am honored to have known him. My dad, Phillip, loved being his Sunday School teacher for many years. Prayers for the family! ”
