“ Because Kitty and my mother were very good friends, Clifton and I spent a great deal of time together. I know Clifton would agree that when our families were together, there was a lot of laughter and a lot of delicious food, especially homemade peach ice cream. Clifton, you will be missed!

“ I remember a night we were all at a party at the apartments we lived at the time. It was a cold night and started to snow. Cliff and I looked at each other and said let's go camping. He hooked up to his boat and I hooked up to mine and off to the lake we went. The ladies met us there. We froze our butts off. One of many great memories
