“ Bill and I first met Connie when we lived next door to her and Charles in Killeen Texas. This was during the Vietnam war and stationed at Fort Hood. This was a very uncertain time for all of us wondering when and where our husbands would be sent. Connie was our Rock. I remember her going from door to door visiting many of us checking up to see if we were all doing ok. Just popping in to say Hi. After we all returned home to our different States she still made a point of staying in touch over some 50 plus years. That is how much she cared about her friends. She will always hold a special place in our hearts. Charles, we love you and know your heart must be broken. please know that we are here for you and welcome you to our home at any time. Prayers go out to you and Kelly and Amy.
