“ Our sincere sympathy to Kathryn and all the family. Cindy was a wonderful person. Cindy did a painting of our church (Mt. Pleasant UMC) about 1990 or so. It was a large painting and then we reduced it by color copying into 8 x 10 or 8 x 14 sizes. Wayne and I sold these pictures to church members and others. The sales amounted to over $500 which we gave to the church to be used for the youth group. We always appreciated Cindy for helping us with that project.

“ Cindy moved to the Green Acres Farm in Covington, Ga which was owned by Ms. Nixon. We shared so many funny times. We laughed til we cried and even tinkled a little. Oh my goodness we had such a wonderful time making trail mix for our Cumberland camping trip and filling up a kiddie pool over and over in a effort to cool off in the summer til we ran the well dry. I think she put a April Fool's pool in my living room as a joke and again we laughed til we cried. She was one of my balcony people who I will always cherish. She married and off they went to Hoganville, Ga. I wish we had stayed in touch more when she had her babies and throughout her life. Hugs to all of you!

“ I did not know Cynthia but worked with her brother Jimmy for several years. Another past co-worker let me know that Jimmy's sister had passed on and I wanted to take a moment to let him and the rest of the Head family know how sorry I am to hear of your loss, my condolences to the family. Cindy was a great lady. I grew up with her when she would visit over the summer at the Head Farm in Hogansville. So many beautiful memories and such fun times. Those will last me a life time. My Sympathy goes to the whole family.

Cindy was younger than I, but Jimmy was in my grade at RCHS. I remember she was such a gentle soul with kind of a shy smile. I am so, so sorry--I had no idea. God bless you Cindy. I am praying for your family. Andrea Poynter McDaniel
