“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones!

“ I pray peace over all who mourn the lost of our love one. Daniel was a caring person and I am honored to have known him as a friend. We shared many laughs just as we did our set backs. My heart is broken, as I know many are at this tremendous lost. May God comfort the family of Daniel and all who are grievous in spirit at his passing.

“ Daniel- I love you more than words can say and will continue to talk to you everyday! I will bring you on the dance floor with me every time and teach others the biker shuffle for you. You were my rock and I'm so sad your gone. But what I do know is I find peace knowing you are where you wanted to be. As you so clearly told me that when I am ok with you doing what you want to do and not what I want you to it was "#prograss, #newjen"....I remember these words clearly and when I get sad think of alllll the amazing memories we had! You are more than missed Daniel and I will continue your journey here for you. Cindy, Kent, Sammy, and family- I pray so hard for your strength! We love you and you are Never Alone xoxox

“ Kent, my heart is overwhelmed for you and Cindy. I think you were about Daniel's age or maybe even younger the last time I saw you. I wish I could have met him, what a wonderful young man. May our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ comfort you and may you feel His presence and mercy during this desperately sad time. I have no words except to say I will be continually praying and lifting you and your precious family to God who knows your pain and is ready to comfort you and love you thru your sorrow. “ Dear Kent and Cindy, I would like to share my condolences with you. I can't say that I was extremely close to Daniel, but I can say that he was an inspiring and compassionate person who was dedicated to being of service in any way he could. He was some one who truly stood out from the crowd, and you always knew when he was around. Losing a child (especially like this) is one of the hardest things anyone could ever go through. I hope you guys lean on each other, friends, and family in this time and please remember that you are never alone! With Love, Renee Jackson

“ One of my all-time favorite memories of Daniel, had to be his dancing. Most men in my immediate and extended family; just do not dance. I think some could; but, just don't. Well, Daniel could dance! This was quite evident at family weddings. Daniel's version of dancing to "Stuck In the Middle With You", was so funny, really awesome and one of those things, you just have to watch. At one wedding, I think it was Amanda and Michael's, Daniel asked me to dance. It was such a treat. While we were dancing to loud music, I asked Daniel to "dip" me and he looked down at me with those big brown eyes and said, "Say What"?
I love you Daniel, and thinking of all our memories. those eyes and that smile are forever etched in my mind!

“ Dan'l was the most honest and truest to the spirit of who he was created to be that I have ever known. The last time I spoke to him, he was having dinner with Kent and I asked how he was doing. Kent said, "he's right here, you wanna talk to him?". Dan'l got on the phone and I told him how proud I was of him and that he was a freakin warrior. He kinda laughed and said, "aw, I don't know about that". I assured him that he was and Heaven had taken notice. I told him I loved him and he returned the favor.

He fought for the right and against the wrong. His mischievous spirit was one of the thousands of things that made him so loveable. He was never afraid. He will be missed here, but he is lighting up the other side. Do you hear me? The other side has never seen such! He is absent from us, but present with his family and Him. We grieve, but will see him again.

Kent, Cindy, Sammi, Zona (peekaboo), and Obadiah (and Capn Jack if you're there); please know that Kris, Jennifer, Thomas, me and all our animals - too many to enumerate love you. We have cried and will cry many more times, but one day, we will rejoice because the circle won't be broken by and by Lord by and by.

Kent, Cindy, Sammi, Barbara and the other extended family, there are no words to express the pain you are going through. Even those who have been through the loss of a child cannot express or console your circumstances. Every loss is unique. Ross and I wanted so bad to be able to come down to be with you on Friday, but we cannot get out of obligations here. We did not know Daniel, but just reading the other comments and talking a little with Jeff we can tell he lived with a passion, and had a devotion to God. Just from those two characteristics which don't make up all of him, we can see that his spirit is "home" now worshipping. Hold on to happy memories. A little practical advice, make sure you print out or save the comments and candle lights. You will want to read them over and over to remind you how much others loved Daniel. Praying for you every day mostly for peace because there is no understanding. Sending hugs and love,
